📄 ABOUT ME

Frontend Developer with hands-on experience building CMS-driven web platforms in a production environment at NoA Ignite (The North Alliance). Experienced working across the frontend flow — from content modeling in Sanity and GROQ queries to validation (Zod) and React rendering — contributing to a shared platform powering multiple storefronts including Intersport, Sport1, and Löplabbet.

Focused on building scalable, editor-controlled frontend systems, improving user experiences, and maintaining clean, consistent frontend architecture across multiple applications. Strong foundation in modern frontend development, responsive UI, accessibility, UX design principles, and web security awareness.

📁 EXPERIENCE

NoA Ignite (The North Alliance)

Frontend Developer Intern

11/2025 – 05/2026 | Stockholm, Sweden

- Project: Sportholding (Intersport, Sport1, Löplabbet)
- Enhanced a shared frontend platform for multiple storefronts using a monorepo architecture
- Developed CMS-driven features with Sanity, focusing on schema design, GROQ queries, Zod validation, and React rendering
- Created editor-controlled components including preamble blocks, FAQ blocks, hero configurations, CTA options, and anchor links
- Enhanced product lists, product pages, badge systems, pricing logic, and search UX
- Managed external integrations (Loop54, Omnium) to map data into frontend models for UI rendering
- Troubleshoot production issues and optimized responsive UI across various breakpoints and devices
- Developed internal tools in Sanity Studio for validation, preview logic, and publishing workflows
- Engaged in Agile processes with Jira, daily standups, PR reviews, and collaborated across teams
- Documented clear PR descriptions and implementation notes to ensure maintainability and aid future development
